Hi Mary Lou, here's that list of Web documents I mentioned on our call a few minutes ago. Use the search feature on the page and search for "columbia," then scan through the list to see if you find what you're looking for. These are all Web pages that exist in our database, even though some are no longer linked out to the Web. We can talk more when you're in again next week. Thanks - Charles

Charles and Jeff:

When you made the Columbia River TMDL web site unavailable to public, there were a lot of documents posted on that web site. I am not getting requests for some of those documents. Do you have those documents archived? Please let me know.

Thanks so much, ml
